MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 21, 1904. European Turmoils Demonstrations in protest against the anti-Italian riots at Innsbruck continued to be made in Italy yesterday. In Rome yesterday afternoon students again started in the direction of the Austrian Embassy and were augmented in numbers from the crowds on the streets. The police were insufficient to control the de onstrators. When they arrived at the embassy they shouted "Long Live Trent!" and "Long Live Trieste!" but the troops, which has been called out, charged the mob and dispersed it. The agitation is taking many forms, includ-ing contributions to the Dante Alighierli Society, memorials adopted by municipalities and addresses to the govern-ment, one of which, from Naples, bore 5,000 signatures. At Bologna the socialists, who are opposed to agitation against a foreign power, attacked a mob that was burning an Austrian flag and rescued the flug. A fight ensued, which was stopped by the police.

As Premier Tisza was leaving a meeting of his political supporters at Budaesth, Hur gary, yesterday he encountered a hostile demonstration. He was greet-ed with shouts of "Resign!" and was pelted with snowballs. The police dis-persed the crowd by a discharge of blank cartridges. Forty arrests were made.

Murdered Woman in Trunk. The German police are occupied in a search for a man, who a few days ago left a trunk in the cloakroom at the railway station of Baku, in Russia. As the trunk began to emit an offensive smell, it was opened by the police, and the dismembered body of a young wom-an, covered with a few rags, was found inside. A rope was drawn tightly round the neck, and a handkerchief was stuffed in the rough. Medical insection in the mouth. Medical investigation revealed the probability that the murder-er first gagged his victim to prevent her making a noise, and then strangled her with the rope, Afterwards he cut the body in pieces for the purpose of pack-ing it in the trunk. Another trunk lett by the same man contained letters, photographs, and other articles, provid-ing useful clues to the identity of the perpetrator. From these it appears that the victim was the young wife of the murderer, to whom she had been married a very short time. Further clues lead to the supposition that the murder-er fled across the frontier to Germany on

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlaiu's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they One Price Clothier and would get a bottle 'of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Tim-berman and W. F. Creighton & Co.,
